Dear Brothers and Sisters:

In a town of the Deep South there lived a woman of great faith. She was always praising God for the wonders He performed in her life. A young fellow in the same town considered her to be a “Holy roller” or fanatic. One day while passing by her home he overheard her pouring out her heart in supplication before the Lord. He looked through her window and saw the woman on her knees in front of the fire place as she prayed for a slab of bacon and some loaves of bread to feed her son because they had nothing left to eat. He thought to himself, “This is my chance...” In no time he had purchased a slab of bacon and some bread from the town market and then returned to drop it down the woman’s chimney. Before long she was in the town plaza praising God for her latest miracle while onlookers listened to her testimony. The young man said, “I’ve got her now! God didn’t send that bacon and bread down your chimney, I did. What do you have to say for yourself now?” To which the woman replied, “Praise the Lord, for He’ll even use a devil like you to answer my prayers.”

In today’s gospel Jesus performed the miracle of feeding thousands by multiplying bread. He doesn’t perform the miracle from thin air but rather uses the humble rations placed at his disposal, “...give them some food yourselves.” Some say the true miracle that day was charity or sharing. Today, He once again multiplied not just bread but his Body and Blood so that we might become that miracle for the world. May we truly be companions (from the Latin “Cumpanis” or with bread) on our journey to the kingdom of God.

Love and Prayers,
Bro. John

Notas del Párroco

Queridos hermanos,

En una ciudad del sur profundo vivía una mujer de gran fe. Ella siempre estaba alabando a Dios por las maravillas que realizó en su vida. Un tipo joven del mismo pueblo la consideraba una fanática religiosa. Un día, al pasar por su casa, escuchó que ella suplicaba al Señor con todo el corazón. Miró por la ventana y vio a la mujer de rodillas en frente de la chimenea orando por una un trozo de tocino y algunos panes para alimentar a su hijo, porque no tenían nada que comer. El muchacho pensó para sí: "Esta es mi oportunidad ..." Rápidamente fue a comprar un trozo de tocino y un poco de pan en el mercado de la ciudad, y luego volvió a la casa y los dejó caer por la chimenea de la mujer. Poco tiempo después, la señora se encontraba en la plaza del pueblo alabando a Dios por su último milagro, mientras los espectadores escuchaban su testimonio. El joven dijo: "¡La tengo ahora!" Dijo, "Dios no envió a que el tocino y el pan cayeran por la chimenea, yo lo hice. ¿Qué dices ahora?" La mujer le respondió: "¡Alabado sea el Señor, porque Él incluso usa a un demonio como tú para responder a mis oraciones."

En el evangelio de hoy Jesús realizó el milagro de alimentar a miles multiplicando el pan. Él no lleva a cabo el milagro de la nada, sino que utiliza las humildes raciones puestas a su disposición, "... denles ustedes de comer." Algunos dicen que el verdadero milagro ese día fue la caridad o sea, compartir. Hoy, una vez más el Señor multiplica, no sólo el pan, sino su Cuerpo y Sangre, para que nosotros nos hiciéramos ese milagro para el mundo. ¿Podemos realmente ser compañeros (del latín "Cumpanis" - con pan) en nuestro camino hacia el Reino de Dios?

Con mucho amor y bendiciones,
Hermano Juan
