 3:00 PM + Trilingual Mass - Pentecost Celebration

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Last Thursday, we celebrated the Ascension of Jesus into Heaven. Next week, we will commemorate the coming of the Holy Spirit with our “Festival of the Nations”, which will begin with a trilingual liturgy at 3PM followed by an explosion of color, music, food and dance in the “Bingo Hall.” This intervening Sunday serves as a bridge between these two outstanding events.

Before Pentecost could take place, the apostles had to choose someone to replace Judas Iscariote. They settle on Matthias to complete the twelve apostles who replace the patriarchs of the Old Covenant and lead the 120 members of the fledgling Church in the New Covenant.

We are also told that Mary the Mother of Jesus was with them in the Upper Room. It is the last mention of her in Sacred Scripture. She too had been a bridge between the old and the new. Mary assisted the infant Church (The Mystical Body of Christ) to stand and walk on its own, as she had done for the child Jesus.

It is only fitting that this past Friday, May 30th, Bishop Donato Ministered the Sacrament of Confirmation to the 27 of our parish youth. We are very proud of each of them as they fully embrace our Catholic Faith and like St. Matthias are given the gifts of the Holy Spirit to witness with courage to Christ in our world. They represent the Church today, now grown to 1.2 billion, and encircling the entire world, and calling us to imitate the “Brethren” as we gather in the Upper Room of our parish church in a pre-Pentecost Novena. There we can pray that the Spirit will move and direct us – the Christian brothers and sisters of the 21st Century!

Love and Prayers,
 Bro. John

Queridos hermanos,

El jueves pasado celebramos la Ascensión de Jesús a los Cielos. La próxima semana conmemoraremos la venida del Espíritu Santo con nuestro "Festival de las Naciones", el cual iniciará con una liturgia trilingüe a las 3PM, seguida por una explosión de color, música, comida y baile en el "Salón de Bingo". Este Domingo de Intercesión nos sirve como un puente de conexión entre estos dos eventos sobresalientes.

Antes de que Pentecostés tomara lugar, los apóstoles tuvieron que elegir a alguien que remplazara a Judas Iscariote. Ellos eligieron a Matías para completar los doce apóstoles que remplazaran a los patriarcas de la Antigua Alianza y que pudieran dirigir a los 120 miembros de la Iglesia infante en la Nueva Alianza.

También se nos dice que María, la Madre de Jesús estuvo presente en la Habitación de Arriba. Esta es la última vez que ella es mencionada en las Sagradas Escrituras. Ella también había sido un puente de conexión entre lo antiguo y lo nuevo. María asistió a la Iglesia infante (El Cuerpo Místico de Cristo) para levantarse y caminar por su propia cuenta, tal y como ella lo hizo con su hijo Jesús.

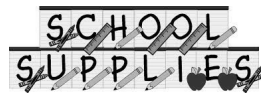

Es muy apropiado que el pasado viernes, Mayo 30, el Obispo Donato administrara el Sacramento de la Confirmación a 27 de nuestros jóvenes parroquianos. Estamos muy orgullosos de cada uno de ellos por abrazar plenamente nuestra Fe Católica, y tal como San Matías, ellos también han recibido los dones del Espíritu Santo para dar testimonio con valentía en este mundo del amor de Jesús. Ellos representan a la Iglesia de nuestros días, la cual ha crecido a 1.2 billones de miembros que se encuentran alrededor del mundo, y nos invitan a imitar a los "Apóstoles" mientras nosotros también nos reunimos en la Habitación de Arriba en nuestra iglesia parroquial durante una Novena pre-Pentecostal. Allí nosotros podremos orar para que el Espíritu nos mueva y dirija – Como las hermanas y hermanos cristianos que somos del Siglo 21.

Con mucho amor y bendiciones,
Hermano Juan
