Dear Brothers and Sisters:

When I was a teenager growing up in Beacon, NY, there was a prison chaplain residing in our parish rectory. His ministry brought him into daily contact with hardened criminals. I still remember one homily he gave on the Feast of Corpus Christi. He told of the day he was making his rounds to bring communion to the Catholic inmates. On his list was a man who was living in solitary confinement. Because of the gravity of his crimes he was considered to be too dangerous to live among the larger prison population.

When the chaplain arrived at his cell, he had to get down on his knees to give the man communion through a slot at the bottom of the door where a plate of food was passed three times daily. As he placed our Lord into the inmate's waiting fingers, he heard weeping from the other side. "What's wrong?" asked the priest, "Why you are crying?" He was not prepared for the response that came. "He died the death of a criminal, although innocent, in order to save me. Now he lowers himself once again in order to save me!"

I can't tell you how many times that homily has come to mind when reflecting on the gift of the Eucharist. I am, we are, that prisoner, not one of us is worthy of the tremendous self-sacrificing love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It is a pure gift which keeps on giving at every Mass throughout the world. It is only fitting that this solemn festival should be held to thank him for his abiding love lowered to reach us all.

Love and Prayers,
Bro. John

Notas del Pastor

Queridos hermanos,

Cuando yo era un adolescente en Beacon, Nueva York, había un capellán de prisión que residía en nuestra casa parroquial. Su ministerio le ponía en contacto a diario con los criminales endurecidos. Todavía me acuerdo de una homilía que pronunció en la solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Él habló del día cuando llevaba la comunión a los presos católicos. En su lista había un hombre que vivía en régimen de aislamiento. Debido a la gravedad de sus crímenes fue considerado demasiado peligroso para vivir entre la población carcelaria mayor.

Cuando el capellán llegó a su celda, tuvo que ponerse de rodillas para darle al hombre la comunión a través de una ranura en la parte inferior de la puerta por la cual se pasaba un plato de comida tres veces al día. Al poner a Nuestro Señor entre los dedos del preso, oyó el llanto del otro lado. "¿Qué le pasa? le preguntó el sacerdote, "¿Por qué estás llorando?" No estaba preparado para la respuesta que vino. "Aunque era inocente, Él se murió como un criminal para salvarme. ¡Ahora se rebaja otra vez con el fin de salvarme! "

No puedo decirles cuántas veces esa homilía me ha venido a la mente al reflexionar sobre el don de la Eucaristía. Yo soy, nosotros somos, ese prisionero, ninguno de nosotros es digno del tremendo amor abnegado de Jesús en el Santísimo Sacramento. Es un puro regalo que seguimos recibiendo en todas las misas en el mundo entero. Es lógico que esta solemne fiesta se celebre para darle las gracias por su amor constante rebajado para llegar a todos nosotros.

Con mucho amor y bendiciones,
Hermano Juan
